RE: Web Marketing Consultant - Part time/Casual

Please accept my application for the above role. I am currently the lead Web Developer and Designer for www.maximshubin.com. I am now seeking a position that will offer new challenges and assist my professional development.

Within my current role, I am responsible for web design and development for various businesses, working one on one with clients to achieve mutually beneficially results, ensuring high rankings for client sites through search engines, and creating and managing the reporting functions.

Complimenting my employment is my education, I am a CIW Certified Professional and have attained JavaScript, PHP, Google Adwords Qualified Individual and MySQL Certification.

In meeting with the job requirements, I am confident in offering the Reload Consulting the following:

- Team orientated, customer focused team member who demonstrates strengths in business management, project planning and marketing
- Excellent presentation and communications skills with the ability to deliver group and individual results under pressure
- Strength in developing rapport with people from diverse backgrounds and cultures by utilising active listening skills

I am confident that my experience and skills will enable me to make a positive difference your organisation and I have attached my resume for your information.

I look forward to meeting with you, at your earliest convenience, to discuss the position further.

Yours sincerely

Max Shubin
